

Lesson ideas for geography teachers to share: BBC news

Go to

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/programmes/m000hqcp>

Activity

Access this free resource from the BBC and answer the following.

Coronavirus: The World in Lockdown with Annita McVeigh

1. Emmanuel Macron says 'nous sommes en guerre'. What does this mean?
2. A vaccine will not be available for up to 18 months. What is said to be a more realistic drug response?
3. What is the solution?
4. What is the concern after lockdown?
5. Why does Irina in Russia say balconies are so important?
6. What is the similarity with the strict movement control of the USSR?
7. What does Steven Taylor say happens in a pandemic?
8. What does Dr. Debanjan Banerjee say India will experience?
9. There is already tension with the caste system and between Hindus and Muslims, what effect will this have on Indian society during the pandemic?

Suggested further work

<https://www.rgs.org/schools/competitions/young-geographer-of-the-year/>

Are you aware of the Young Geographer of the Year competition? We run an annual competition to recognise the outstanding work – and potential – of the next generation of geographers. This year the theme is 'the world beyond my window'.